

1. Review
2. Exercises
3. Answers

Phrasal verb

Verb + preposition

Types:

Transitive: takes an Object

I want to switch off the TV

Intransitive: does not take an Object

You have to watch out

Exercise 3

Ok, let me 6)..... how you should 7) a heavy object..... First, you always bend at the knees. Never with your back. Then, try and get your hands under the object. At that stage you can decide to 8)..... it if you want to. Alternatively, you can continue lifting and then 9)..... it..... where you want to, remembering at all times that it is your legs and arms that do the work, not your back!

break down

Exercise 4

I didn't really want to 10) this, Sarah but since you have been living here, you haven't been very tidy. I am 11) you to keep this place nice for both of us. If you spill something, please 12) it! If you don't 13) this unclean behaviour, I will have to 14)..... you and find a new housemate!

get rid of

Answers

Exercise 3

Ok, let me 6) break down how you should 7) pick a heavy object up. First, you always bend at the knees. Never with your back. Then, try and get your hands under the object. At that stage you can decide to 8) turn it over if you want to. Alternatively, you can continue lifting and then 9) put it down where you want to, remembering at all times that it is your legs and arms that do the work, not your back!

Exercise 4

I didn't really want to 10) bring this up, Sarah but since you have been living here, you haven't been very tidy. I am 11) counting on you to keep this place nice for both of us. If you spill something, please 12) clean it up! If you don't 13) cut out this unclean behaviour, I will have to 14) kick you out and find a new housemate!