

SET CODE OF CONDUCT

It is important to SET English that all students and teachers feel safe and respected in our classrooms.

Equality, diversity and inclusion are central aspects of our approach to education.

This requires all staff and students to treat each other fairly and to be responsible for their actions in the classroom or when communicating within the school environment, including on social media platforms provided for students.

SET English has a zero tolerance approach to bullying and bigotry in all forms.

It is vital that SET English are made aware of any incidents relating to bullying or bigotry. Please report any incidents of this type to info@set-english.com. Any disclosures will be treated confidentially.

SET English expects the following behaviour in the classroom:

- Arrive on time for SET English classes.
- Keep microphones on mute unless requested to speak.
- Do not interrupt students who are speaking in class.
- Do not interrupt teachers who are speaking in class.
- Restrict all posting on social media or in class to English language learning material.
- Treat all student answers or written submissions with respect.

SET English reserve the right to exclude any student from the course who does not follow the Code of Conduct consistently.
