

Put the words below into the correct question and then think about your answer to the question:

come to terms with / conceal / advocate

1. How can medical professionals advocate for improved access to medical treatment in their local community?
2. In your opinion, is it ever acceptable to conceal certain medical information from a patient or their family?
3. How can medical professionals help patients come to terms with a life-changing diagnosis?

- 34 Initially, the project group found it a challenge to decide how to
- (A) incorporate all the resources already in existence.
  - (B) select the most appropriate age group to focus on.
  - (C) ensure a broad range of perspectives was represented.

Key Words:

Simplification/Rephrasing:

At first, what was the challenge in making a decision?

A – combining resources already available

B – choosing most suitable age group

C – including a wide range of opinions