

Reading Part C Vocabulary- Trainer Test 5

Verbs

Can you find the verbs in the box and match them to a definition and a connected idea in the box?

He had a congenital heart defect and an unhealthy lifestyle	The nurses' union advised its members to accept the deal.	stretch
make something go further, without breaking it	compound	Plasters and dressings help with bleeding.
keep from being seen/ conceal	Healthy and fit but heart disease.	endorse
Stop something from continuing to happen.	officially/publicly support	obscure make something bad even worse	We only have 50% of our staff here today.	stem

Adjectives

Can you find the adjectives in the box and match them to a definition and a connected idea in the box?

transient	well known but for bad reasons	Possible side effects of new medication
frail	Paracetamol is well tolerated and safe.	preventing success / harmful
Episodic back pain .	notorious	weak and delicate
A medication with a history of harming people.	A 75-year old man after multiple heart attacks.	lasting only for a short time
the usual way	adverse	default

1. I think that this new job is having a dehumanising/detrimental effect on Susan.
2. I'm not sure how we isolate / divert the new Covid patients to another department.

3. Being a patient on a crowded ward can sometimes feel dehumanising/notorious.
4. Mrs Smith has been admitted for an obscure / straightforward procedure. She should be discharged within 24 hours.
5. The implementation / barrier of new hygiene policies is an important aspect of the new management approach.
6. Your colleague, Sharon, appears very frail/stretched at the moment. See if she needs some help.

Answers

Verbs

Can you find the verbs in the box and match them to a definition and a connected idea in the box?

He had a congenital heart defect and an unhealthy lifestyle	The nurses' union advised its members to accept the deal.	stretch
make something go further, without breaking it	compound	Plasters and dressings help with bleeding.
keep from being seen/ conceal	Healthy and fit but heart disease.	endorse
Stop something from continuing to happen.	officially/publicly support	obscure
make something bad even worse	We only have 50% of our staff here today.	stem

Adjectives

Can you find the adjectives in the box and match them to a definition and a connected idea in the box?

transient	well known but for bad reasons	Possible side effects of new medication
frail	Paracetamol is well tolerated and safe.	preventing success / harmful
Episodic back pain.	notorious	weak and delicate
A medication with a history of harming people.	A 75-year old man after multiple heart attacks.	lasting only for a short time
the usual way	adverse	default

1. I think that this new job is having a dehumanising/ detrimental effect on Susan.
2. I'm not sure how we isolate/ divert the new Covid patients to another department.
3. Being a patient on a crowded ward can sometimes feel dehumanising – treated like you're not an individual with human rights /notorious.
4. Mrs Smith has been admitted for a obscure/ straightforward procedure. She should be discharged within 24 hours. (simple, easy, quick)
5. The implementation /barrier of new hygiene policies is an important aspect of the new management approach.
6. Your colleague, Sharon, appears very frail/stretched at the moment. See if she needs some help.
7. It's important not to endorse/ compound an already bad situation.
8. Mrs Smith has reported a number of adverse /transient effects of her new medication. She will tell us when they return.