

Vocabulary review

Which words are in the incorrect place? Fix them!

Note: 1) One of the sentences is correct! 2) To fix the sentences you will need to change the form of some of the words:

1. You can impregnate a number of conclusions from a urine test.
2. The instigation of her blood pressure readings is slightly worrying.
3. The switch to IV was done at my assurance.
4. It's important when you start working in a new environment to reinforce yourself in the work culture.
5. I recommend immerse testing, in order to keep track of the infection's progress.
6. I think the medication has worked very well! There has been a dramatic turnaround in your son's condition.
7. Deriving of new policy requirements is often necessary after 6 months.
8. The importance of regular segregation activities cannot be underestimated.
9. We often use dressings which are periodic with iodine.
10. Female and male patients are trajectory in the UK health system.

- | |
|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Without further tests, it isn't possible to accurately determine/establish/understand the cause of her symptoms.• The information she gave me about her lifestyle informed the advice (which/that) I gave her.• She said that she would adapt her diet accordingly. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• His vital signs deteriorated.• I estimated the best insertion point.• We aspirated fluid from the lung. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We fixed the position of the catheter stopcock appropriately.• When we were doing it we asked him to hum. |

Answers

1. You can derive a number of conclusions from a urine test.
2. The trajectory of her blood pressure readings is slightly worrying.
3. The switch to IV was done at my instigation.
4. It's important when you start working in a new environment to immerse yourself in the work culture.
5. I recommend periodic testing, in order to keep track of the infection's progress.
6. I think the medication has worked very well! There has been a dramatic turnaround in your son's condition.
7. Reinforcement of new policy requirements is often necessary after 6 months.
8. The importance of regular assurance activities cannot be underestimated.
9. We often use dressings which are impregnated with iodine.
10. Female and male patients are segregated in the UK health system.

We didn't know exactly what the problem was because we hadn't tested enough. She gave me information about her lifestyle and I used it to decide the best advice. She accepted my advice.

His condition worsened, so I guessed where to insert the needle. It was a good guess and we managed to fix the pneumothorax.

His stopcock needed adjusting and while we fixed it we asked him to make a low noise in his throat.