

Participle Clause & Relative Clause Review

Organise the sentences into the correct boxes and state what type of sentence it is:

- Relative clause
- Present participle clause
- Perfect participle clause

Additionally, see if you can correct the sentences which have mistakes:

1. Feeling nervous about her upcoming procedure, Joanne contacted her GP.
2. Having been prescribed with antibiotics, Mrs Gardener went to the pharmacist.
3. Staring closely at the opticians chart, taking part in her eye test.
4. Joanne Smithson has a number of family problems, which are causing her stress to increase.
5. Having misunderstood the pre-procedure instructions, Mr Smithson ate a full breakfast on the day of his operation.
6. Sarah has been diagnosed with eczema, who is really upset.
7. Bruce was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, which is a progressive condition.
8. Having not kept his wound clean, his wound being infected.
9. Mrs Johnson feeling nervous about her procedure, her friend was allowed in.
10. Mr Harris stopped taking his medication three days ago, that could explain his behavioural changes.
11. Having been non-compliant with his medication, Mr Smith developing neuropathy.
12. Developed symptoms of pneumonia, Mr Edwards was taken to hospital.

| Correct | Type | Incorrect | Type |
|---------|------|-----------|------|
| | | | |

Answers

Organise the sentences into the correct boxes and state what type of sentence it is:

- Relative clause
- Present participle clause
- Perfect participle clause

Additionally, see if you can correct the sentences which have mistakes:

| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Feeling nervous about her upcoming procedure, Joanne contacted her GP. 2. Having been prescribed with antibiotics, Mrs Gardener went to the pharmacist. 3. Staring closely at the opticians chart, she took part in her eye test. 4. Joanne Smithson has a number of family problems, which are causing her stress to increase. 5. Having misunderstood the pre-procedure instructions, Mr Smithson ate a full breakfast on the day of his operation. 6. Sarah, who has been diagnosed with eczema, is really upset. 7. Bruce was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, which is a progressive condition. 8. Having not kept his wound clean, his wound is/was infected. 9. Feeling nervous about her procedure, Mrs Johnson's friend was allowed in. 10. Mr Harris stopped taking his medication three days ago, which could explain his behavioural changes. 11. Having been non-compliant with his medication, Mr Smith developed neuropathy. 12. Having developed symptoms of pneumonia, Mr Edwards was taken to hospital. | | | |
|--|-------|-----------|-------|
| Correct | Type | Incorrect | Type |
| 1 – | pr p | 3 | pre p |
| 2- | per p | 6 | rel |
| 4 – | rel | 8 | per p |
| 5 – | per p | 9 | pre p |
| 7 – | rel | 11 | per p |
| 10 - | rel | 12 | per p |